Manuscripts submitted to Journal of Tropical Biology and Conservation should comprise original, unpublished material and should not currently be under consideration for publication elsewhere.

General

The Journal of Tropical Biology and Conservation is an international reviewed journal published annually by the Institute for Tropical Biology and Conservation, Universiti Malaysia Sabah. This journal is devoted to the publication of research papers, short notes or communications, reports and reviews in all fields that are of general relevance to tropical biology and conservation including investigations on biodiversity, systematics and taxonomy, experimental biology, applied ecology, wildlife management and control, ethноботаника и этнобиология, natural product chemistry and ecotourism. The editors encourage contributions of papers from Southeast Asian region.

Preparation of manuscripts

The text of the manuscript should be a Word document using Times New Roman (12 pt.) font and double-spaced. It should be typed on numbered pages in standard A4 format with 2.5 cm margin all around. In general, the manuscript should be organised as follows: Title, followed by the name(s) of author(s) and address(es). Abstract (should be less than 250 words), Introduction (not more than six (6) words) and Running Heading (not more than 50 characters). Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion (Results and Discussion may be combined). Conclusions (if appropriate) and References. Acknowledgements (if any) may be included at the end of the text preceding the references cited. Tables and figures legends should be at the end of the manuscript. Each heading in the main text may be divided into sections and subsections (where appropriate).

The placing of each table and figure should be indicated in the text. Each table and figure should be numbered according to the order of appearance in the text. The legends should be understandable to someone who has not read the text. Citations of references in the text are by author(s) and year of publication, e.g.: one author; Smith (1998) or Smith, 1998; two authors: Smith & Gomez (1999) or (Smith & Gomez, 1999); three authors: Smith et al. (1999) or (Smith et al., 1999); multiple references when within parentheses (Smith, 1990; 1998; 2004). References should be arranged alphabetically according to authors' names and then by date. Journal names should be given in full. Use the following format in the reference section:

For Books, e.g.,

For chapters in a book, e.g.,

For a paper in a journal, e.g.,

Submissions of manuscripts

For initial submission of manuscript, upload a Word (.doc) file containing the complete paper. The front page should only contain the title, name of authors, affiliation, addresses, contact details, running heading, key words and corresponding author.

Later, when submitting a revised article, upload a text file (Word) containing the revised text, references, tables and figure captions. This file should not include graphics. Figures need to be submitted in a separate file in JPG (.jpg) or TIFF (.tiff) format. Filenames should clearly corresponds to the figure(s) enclosed in each file.

Manuscripts should be submitted via email attachments to the Managing Editor. Alternatively, hand copy of the manuscript in triplicate should be sent to the Managing Editor. All manuscripts are subjected to peer review.

Monographs

There are no changes for papers published. Very long papers (longer than 25 printed pages), however, are not encouraged. Such papers will be published in monographs series. Payment for excess pages can be arranged.

Copyrights and Reprints

Authors who wish to republish an article or a significant part of it must obtain written permission to reprint the material from the original publisher. Authors will receive 15 free reprints.
